

Construction Camp

Construction Camp introduces little builders to a broad range of materials and tools. We study the natural and man-made world around us, while learning to work individually as well as part of a team. Our goal is to share the joy of building, revising, and repairing. Real Tools for Small Hands. Campers work on individual and group projects with real tools and materials that are scaled and selected for small hands. Creativity and problem solving are fostered.

Supporting Documents

-  Construction Camp Information Sheet
-  Youth Medical Release Form
-  Registration Form

Source URL (retrieved on 2014-09-16 20:05): <http://exeternh.gov/recreation/construction-camp>